

BLUE RIDGE SCOUT RESERVATION HUNTING RULES 2022-2023

RESERVATION PERMITS AND LICENSES:

All hunters on the Blue Ridge Scout Reservation must strictly observe all Virginia hunting and fishing laws. Failure to do so will result in loss of hunting privileges on The Blue Ridge Scout Reservation (BRSR), Blue Ridge Mountains Council (BRMC) reserves the right to close hunting on any portion of the Reservation at any time.

1. Hunting on the reservation is by permit only. Hunters must:
 - a. Carry the permit on their person at all times while hunting.
 - b. Possess a valid Virginia hunting license in addition to a Reservation hunting permit.
 - c. Clearly Display their parking permit issued on the dashboard of the hunter's parked vehicle while that individual is engaged in hunting
 - d. A valid Permit acknowledges the hunter's agreement to all regulations and their release of liability of the BRSR and BRMC.

CAMPING ON THE BLUE RIDGE SCOUT RESERVATION:

Camping is allowed. Hunters who plan to camp must notify Reservation rangers of arrival and departure times, campsite location, and the names and addresses of all overnight campers.

2. No fires are permitted.
3. No camping or hunting is allowed within 500 yards of any permanent building or structure on the Reservation except by special permit.

IN COMPLIANCE WITH VDGIF

Hunting is allowed on all legal hunting days in November including Sunday hunting.

4. With the exception of the month of November, hunting with firearms is prohibited on Friday (after 12 noon) through Sunday, Holidays, and when Scout groups are present and using the reservation.
5. Bow hunting is allowed Monday through Thursday on any legal hunting day of the season. Bow hunters may hunt Fridays through Sundays during the archery season by calling the Reservation Staff and providing information about the area and time they wish to hunt and a call back number where they can be reached.
6. Hunters under the age of 21, while using a firearm must be accompanied and supervised by an adult (21 or older) who currently possesses a valid Virginia hunting license. (Age restriction is reduced to 16 while using archery tackle)

BLUE RIDGE SCOUT RESERVATION SPECIFIC POLICIES:
